Important: Information in this document does not constitute tax, legal, or other professional advice and must not be used as such. If you have questions, please consult your tax advisor.

What is an ASIN?

This is a unique ID number assigned to each item and is usually 10 characters long. However, the Order Number is a unique number assigned to your transaction and this should be the ID referenced if you need to contact Vine's Customer Service team.

What is Shipped Date?

Based on the Vine Voice Participation Agreement, title of Vine items transfers to you at the time of delivery to you. If a Vine item was delivered on November 3rd, 2022 and another on January 15th, 2023, only the November one delivered in the 2022 calendar year will be calculated toward your 2022 aggregated total. If the item was cancelled before it was delivered, then the Order Date will be referenced instead.

What is Estimated Tax Value?

The estimated fair market value of Vine items provided to you at the time of requesting. For IRS reporting, Amazon estimates the fair market value of products at the point when you took ownership. All amounts are in USD unless specified.

Does the total value change if I have to cancel an order because I can't review it?

Yes, if you have to cancel a Vine order because you can't review it due to a defective or damaged item, then we may deduct the value of that item from your Vine account when the cancellation occurs. Please reference the Order Number(s) when contacting Customer Service from Vine.
